S. J. RES. 24

To designate the week of February 7 through February 13, 1994 as “Travel Agent Appreciation Week”.

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES

JANUARY 26 (legislative day, JANUARY 5), 1993

Mr. BURNS introduced the following joint resolution; which was read twice and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary

JOINT RESOLUTION

To designate the week of February 7 through February 13, 1994 as “Travel Agent Appreciation Week”.

Whereas travel and tourism has become one of the fastest growing industries in the United States, generating more than $350,000,000,000 in 1992;

Whereas over 40,000 travel agencies in the United States perform many vital services that save American consumers and business valuable time and money;

Whereas both business and leisure travelers have come to rely on the travel agent for accurate, professional advice;

Whereas travel agents are an integral part of the travel and tourism industry;

Whereas travel agents generated over $51,000,000,000 in revenue for the airline industry in 1992 alone;

Whereas travel agents are located in all 50 States, and are an important source of jobs from entry level to middle management in almost every town throughout the country; and

Whereas it is fitting to set aside a time to honor and recognize these highly trained travel professionals: Now, therefore, be it
